

Use AO

(Sung to the tune of "Let It Snow")

Oh the seeing outside is frightful
But we've only got tonight, so ...
Since we're all set to go,
Use AO! Use AO! Use AO!

The contrast needs much enhancing,
As the speckels they are dancing,
And the signal is way down low,
Use AO! Use AO! Use AO.

When we finally quit tonight,
Then the Strehl ought to be in good form.
And if we gather lots of light,
All the points will beat the norm.

The nighttime is slowly dying,
But, my dear, we'll keep on trying.
And as long as those photons flow,
Use AO! Use AO! Use AO.
