

ASTR 1 – Introduction to the Cosmos

Final Exam – Monday December 5, 2016

891837007

Name: _____

- Select the answer (letter choices A–E) that BEST fits the question.
- Write and bubble in your name and student ID on the Scantron form.
- Write your name on this exam script.
- Turn in BOTH your Scantron form and this exam script to one of the proctors at the end of the exam.
- Don't worry about the "Test Form" bubble on the Scantron form; we will fill that in for you.

Other notes:

- NO talking please!!!! If the exam proctors see a student talking or exchanging information with any of the other students during the exam, they will make a note on the exam script of the student(s) in question, and the student(s) will fail the exam.
- NO calculators, laptops, cell phones, iPods, or any other electronic devices please! The required math should be doable on pencil/paper without the need for a calculator.
- NO textbooks (electronic or paper versions)!
- This is an OPEN NOTES exam, so written, typed or printed notes ARE allowed during the exam
